
DECEMBER 12, 1822.

Read twice, and committed to a committee of the whole House to-morrow.

A BILL

For the relief of Nathan Branson.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That
3 there be paid to Nathan Branson, out of any money in the 4 Treasury, not otherwise appropriated, the sum of six hundred
5 and sixty-nine dollars and three cents, being the amount re-
6 covered from him in the district court for the district of Ala-
7 bama, on two bonds given by him for duties on goods, on which 8 duty had already been paid, according to law, on their original
9 importation into the United States.
